ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you

QUIET AND ROMANTIC.

A Moore County Couple Married Last Night in this City.

Mr. Sam T. Fry, of Carthage, wrote Mr. O C Wysong, of this city, a few days ago that he would be here yesterday and would request a short interview with him at his residence. At first Mr. Wysong did not know but that Mr. Fry wanted to purchase a carload of woodworking machinery; but later he received further information that led him to believe the visit was for an entirely different purpose. So he prepared to entertain a wedding party.

Rev C. E. Hodgin was communicated with and requested to be on hand. The four o'clock train brought not only Mr. Fry, but Miss Cora C. Womble and sister Miss Ada Womble, of Glendon, and Mr R H. Hunsucker, of Kinston, a cousin of Mr. Fry At six o'clock the marriage ceremony was performed by Mr. Hodgin which made Mr. Sam T. Fry and Miss Cora C. Womble man and wife. The witnesses were Mr. Hunsucker, Miss Ada Womble and Mr. Wysong and family.

After the ceremony Mr. Wysong, whose hospitality is of the genuine southern type, surprised the wedding party by inviting them to an elegant supper. The night was spent in the city and this morning the bridal party went to Raleigh to attend the fair.

Mr Fry holds a positions with the Tyson & Jones Buggy Co., at Carthage and his bride is a daughter of Mr. C. H Womble, of Glendon Their marriage is a surprise to their many friends, who will be none the less hearty and sincere in extending to them the warmest congratulations.

Cupid is a sly old rascal and just what he led them away from home to get married for is a mystery unless it was because he loves to be romantic. May their life be one of unalloyed bliss, is the sincere wish of the writer, who knows them both well.

BOERS STORMING MAFEKING

The Battle Proceeds Today With Stubbornness.

TWELVE BOERS ARE KILLED

So Far, Number of Wounded Unknown—Afrikanders Preparing to Attack Dundee.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct 17—Though the towns of Mafeking and Kimberly are known to be fully invested by the Boers and in danger of capture, the chief war interest today centers about Glencoe. Ladysmith, Apex, and Natal. The latest advices show three Boer columns, with Joubet in command, closing in upon the chief British position with the undoubted object of surrounding it.

The western column is composed of Transvaal and Free State troops and Hollanders, with Bothos Pass as their base. The eastern column is very large, and entered Natal from Wakerstroom. Joubert, with the middle column, marched hrough Laingsneck and erected strong earthworks to defend the pass.

PARLIAMENT TO BE CALLED.

London, Oct. 7—The queen's speech says parliament will be called together to consider the South African situation

FIVE BOERS KILLED.

Cape Town, Oct. 17—A Kimberly dispatch dated yesterday says an armored train, reconnoitreing in the direction of Spytfonzein, encountered and engaged a body of Boers who lost five killed and seven wounded. The British suffered no casualties.

NINE BRITISH WOUNDED.

London, Oct. 17—A telegram from Lorenzo Marques states that Transvaal refugees arrived there report that the Boers were repulsed at Mafeking with heavy loss.

A dispatch from Pretoria confirms the statement regarding the fighting of the Fourteenth regiment north of Mafeking An armored train was attacked by a Boer command. Two Boers were killed and three wounded. The train then retired but was subsequently attacked by the Boers. Nine British soldiers were wounded.

TO CUT OFF WATER SUPPLY.

Cape Town, Oct 17—It is expected that the Boers will cut off the Kimberly water supply, but the town's reservoir contains enough water for a considerable period.

A dispatch from Mafeking states that all was intact there Saturday night The Boer artillery was then being brought up, but had not been placed in position. According to these advices, the British have blown up the Cape Town Railway bridge over the Orange river, with the view of checking the Boer advance southward.

BOERS STORMING MAFEKING.

Cape Town, Oct. 17—The attack upon Mafeking began in earnest today. The battle proceeds stubbornly, the Boers attacking. They have been repulsed three times in the attack upon the north side, and renewed the assault the fourth time when Cronje came up with artillery. The Boers lost twelve killed.

A FEINT BY THE BOERS.

Ladysmith, Oct. 17—The threatened assault upon Glencoe is believed to be a feint, with the hope of weakening the garrison here and exposing the town to attack from the westward. The Boers are resting preparatory to completing an encircling movement for the expected attack upon Dundee. They cannot advance much further without coming in contact with the British cavalry. Little fighting in the near future in this section is expected apart from desultory outpost skirmishes.

FRANCE, RUSSIA AND SPAIN

gainst England—Is a Continental Alliance About to be Formed?

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Paris, Oct. 17—Rumors concerning the political mission of Count Muravieff to France and Spain are gaining consistency. Spain is supposed to be about to issue from her isolation in Europe and enter into a sort of triple alliance with France and Russia. It is announced today that France is considering a Russian treaty and that an alliance may be read to the French parliament as an answer to the Fashoda affair and as preparation for a continental union against England.

FROM MANILA.

One American Killed and Seven Wounded.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Manila, Oct. 17—Frequent and lengthy firing indicates that the insurgents are numerous around Angeles. Yesterday they harassed the Americans for four hours, using artillery. One American was killed and seven wounded.

East African Central Railroad.

By Cable to the Telegram

Berlin, Oct. 17—The colonial council has unanimously approved the proposal that the government should undertake the construction of the East African Central Railway. The first section is to extend to Ukami, to be built in three years.

OUTLOOK IN OHIO.

Representative Brownwell Predicts a Big Republican Majority.

Washington, Oct 16—"Republicans will carry Ohio by from 40,000 to 50,000 majority," said Representative Brownwell, of Cincinnati, today.

"The democrats are better organized than in years, but this will be of no use to them in the face of the people's desire that the present prosperous conditions continue. Whenever I talked about whipping the Filipinos and restoring peace the Germans gave their approval in many ways. Germans prefer prosperity and satisfaction with the Philippines thrown in to depression and lack of confidence without the Philippines."

Rose Adair.

'Twas in green-leafy springtime
When the birds on every tree
Were breakin' all their little hearts
In a merry melody;
An' the young buds hung like tassels,
An' the flowers grew everywhere—
'Twas in green-leafy springtime
I first saw Rose Adair.

I met her sowin' mushrooms
With her white feet in the grass,
'Twas eve—but mornin' in the smile
O' my sweet colleen las;
An' I kissed her, oh! so secretly,
That not a one should know—
But the roguish stars they winked above
An' the daisies smiled below.

The father in confession, Rose,
Won't count that love a sin,
That with a kiss taps at the heart
An' lets an angel in;
'Twas so love entered into mine,
An' made his dwellin' there—
If that's a sin, the Lord forgive
Your beauty, Rose Adair.

The leaves will fall in the autumn,
An' the flowers all come to grief,
But the green love in my heart of hearts
Will never shed a leaf,
For the sunshine of your bonnie eyes
Will keep it green an' fair,
An' your breath will be its breeze o' spring,
O lovely Rose Adair!

Enlistment of Volunteers.

Lieutenant Settle, the recruiting officer in charge in this state, says that the dispatches sent out from Washington to the effect that recruiting for all the volunteer regiments had ceased is not true. Recruiting officers are still enlisting men for the 41st and 49th regiments. he says The 41st is a white regiment at Camp Meade, and the 49th is a colored regiment at Jefferson Barracks. Of course enlistments for the regular army—infantry, artillery and hospital corps—go on all the time.

POLITICS IN OLD VIRGINIA.

No Interest Manifested in the Approaching Election.

DEMOCRATS HOLD THE REINS

Tyler Will Probably Give Up the Contest and Senator Martin Will Be Re-Elected.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 17—The Supreme Council, thirty-third degree Masons, of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rites, Southern Jurisdiction, is holding its sessions in Washington this week. Unlike the other countries, the Masons of the United States have two supreme councils, the southern and the northern jurisdiction. The southern jurisdiction consists of Scottish Rites Coustories in all of the state south of the Mason and Dixon line, and west of the Mississippi river, except Michigan and Wisconsin, and is the acknowledged mother of the world The supreme council is composed of but thirty-three members. There are also the emeriti members, who are men who have served long and faithfully in the supreme council, but who for one reason and another have been dropped from active service, and honorary members, the latter class numbering about 380. The principal business of the council is behind closed doors, even the emeriti and honorary members being excluded.

Wednesday night the District of Columbia consistory will tender a banquet to the visiting representatives, and it will be a most pleasant feature of the gathering. A pilgrimage will be made to the grave of General Albert Pike, and at some future day the corner stone to his monument in this city will be laid with the impressive masonic honors, Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, delivering the principal address. During the session two officers will be chosen to fill vacancies caused by death of Lieutenant Grand Commander Long, of Virginia, and Treasurer General Meredith, of Baltimore. The latter died last week, his funeral services having been held last Saturday.

Virginia people coming to Washington say that no longer is there any interest manifested in the senatorial election, or in the election for members of the state legislature. A prominent gentleman from Virginia stated yesterday that in his opinion when the legislature assembles it will be found so solidly for the re-election of Senator Martin that Governor Tyler will give up the contest and Martin will be re-elected without any opposition. The same gentleman stated also that he doubted whether the republicans, populists or independents would carry a single district in the state, or house of delegate this year in Virginia. If any members of the opposition are elected he said they will be very few and far between. The republicans, he said, are making practically no contest this year, and the field is left entirely to the populists and independents.

Representative Robert W. Davis, of Florida, arrived in Washington Monday morning He is accompanied by his wife and their daughter, Miss Nellie. They have taken rooms at the Metropolitan hotel, which, it is understood, will be their headquarters during the coming session of congress.

Mr Davis says that politics in his section of the south is quiet. Business is very good and there are indications of a good season in the south during the winter. He thinks that the coming session of congress will be a long and important one, and he is in hopes that the south may secure considerable needed legislation, especially in the line of river and harbor improvements.

It is reported in the Baltimore Sun, that Mr Thompson, a leading commission merchant, of Houston, Texas, has been buying large quantities of apples in Shenandoah county, Virginia, for shipment to Texas He expresses himself as being much pleased with the variety and the quality of apples grown in the valley of Virginia. It is said that he has purchased thus far over 1,000 barrels of apples.

Wirt Adams, a prominent citizen of Jackson, Mississippi, is in the city. Mr. Adams says that the yellow fever scare in Jackson has seriously interfered with business, but that the people are recovering from the effects of it, and that business is settling down again to its normal condition.

W. K. Hill, of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, is in the city for a few days, enroute south. He is accompanied by Mrs. Hill They will visit Virginia and North Carolina, and may go further south. Mr. Hill is one of the biggest hotel proprietors in the New England States.

New postoffice has been established by the postoffice department at Cox, Randolph county, North Carolina. The new office is located two and one-half miles east of Jackson's creek. James F. Delk has been commissioned postmaster.

R. B Glenn, of Winston, has been in the city for a few days, stopping at the National Hotel.

Walter Crafton, of North Carolina, is also at the National.

Any lady who likes tan shoes can get a genuine bargain at Thacker & Brockmann's now. We have a short lot of regular $2.00 and $2.25 ladies' tan and chocolate laced shoes to close out at $1 48. All sizes from 2½ to 7, except 3's. Also 17 pairs $1.50 and $1.25 tan laced shoes, sizes 3, 3½, 4 and 4½ to close at 98 cents.

DEWEY BEHIND TIME.

Reaches Washington Over Six Hours Late.

Washington, Oct. 16—Fresh from the series of New England demonstrations in his honor, Admiral Dewey returned to Washington late this afternoon on the belated through Federal express from Boston. His home-coming after a continuous round of celebrations, extending practically from his arrival at Sandy Hook, marked his first experience in being hours behind his schedule, for the train bearing his party, delayed by the dense fog about New York harbor during the night, pulled into the Pensylvania depot here at 3:55 p m, six hours and thirteen minutes late. It was a fatiguing and featureless trip.

The admiral was accompanied by Flag Lieutenant Brumby, Flag Secretary Caldwell and General Passenger Agent McKeever, of the Rutland Railroad. They occupied W. K. Vanderbilt's car, No. 101, which the admiral has had at his disposal since he left New York last Tuesday, and which was attached to the rear of the express. Three times the admiral came out on the platform, but there was no speech-making or hand-shaking. Owing to the belated time, few people along the route gathered to greet him. The party waited a quarter of an hour here for the admiral's carriage and when he passed through the crowd in the depot to reach it there was some cheering which the admiral acknowledged by lifting his hat. He was driven to his hotel. The admiral has made no plans or engagements for the next few days, and expects to give himself complete rest. So far he has fixed no date for the Atlanta reception.

AFFAIRS AT SAN DOMINGO.

Hereux's Estate in the Hands of the Sheriff—Paper Money 18 to 1.

San Domingo, Oct. 16—The government has issued a decree declaring the late President General Heraux responsible for the mismanagement of the government, by mixing public with private affairs, and introducing unlawful currency, and has ordered the public attorney to proceed against his heirs and all whom it may concern, commencing by attaching the estate. The decree names a committee on of three leading lawyers, whom it empowers to co-operate with the public attorney in the investigation.

Great indignation is expressed at the discovery of a rebellious plot, involving an attempt to assassinate Gen. Jiminez and Gen. Vasquez, the provisional president. Many persons have been placed under arrest charged with complicity in the plot, and it is expected that further arrests will be made.

Several measures are being taken to insure public order and the country is apparently quiet. Business is slowly improving. There was a public sale yesterday of paper money at the ratio of 18 to 1.

PR F. TILLINGHAST'S PLAN—RANDOM MUSICAL CHAT.

The musical dissertations of Prof. J. W. Tillinghast, which appear in his department of the Telegram once a week, on Mondays, are getting very interesting. We hope the earnest and able efforts of this cultured gentleman in our city will receive the ample recognition they so richly deserve.

The idea advanced in his contribution in yesterday's paper of teaching music in the public schools, is an excellent one, we think. Nothing in the line of culture is in any measure so elevating and enobling, nor so instrumental in bringing out the better part of the youthful nature, as an early instillation, while the youth's character is so pliant and susceptible, of the principles of the heaven-born science of music. Vice cannot exist in a soul that has a true love for music, and we believe that where the love of music is cultivated to sufficient extent in the child's character that there is never inclination to indulge the baser passions as maturer age approaches. And a community in whose population the true conception of music reaches any considerable development will not furnish one-tenth of the criminality of a community in which the noble art has been neglected. Lorenzo well said:

"The man that hath no music in himself,
Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils;
The motions of his spirit are dull as night,
And his affections dark as Erebus;
Let no such man be trusted."

And again does the great conceptive soul of Shakespeare exhibit a beautiful tenderness when he maket the Duke of Illyria say:

"If music be the food of love, play on,
Give me excess of it, that surfeiting,
The appetite may sicken and so die.—
That strain again;—it had a dying fall—
O, it came o'er my ear like the sweet south
That breathes upon a bank of violets,
Stealing and giving odor."

Edgar Allan Poe, that man of such remarkable genius and sadness, had the true conception of music. In his "Poetic Principle," he says:

"It is in music, perhaps, that the soul most nearly attains the great end for which, when inspired by the poetic sentiment, it struggles,—the creation of supernal beauty. It may be, indeed, that here this sublime end is, now and then, attained in fact. We are often made to feel, with a shivering delight, that from an earthly harp are stricken notes which cannot have been unfamiliar to the angels."

And again: "And thus when by poetry—or when by music, the most entrancing of the poetic moods—we find ourselves melted into tears—we weep then—not as the Abbate Gravina supposes—through excess of pleasure, but through a certain petulant, impatient sorrow at our inability to grasp NOW wholly, here on earth, at once and forever, those divine and rapturous joys, of which, through the poem, or through the music, we attain to but brief and indeterminite glimpses."

Mr. D. A. Tompkins, a prominent manufacturer of Charlotte, gives out the following figures:

"The spindles in and near Charlotte in 1870, none; the price of land per acre, $5.

"Spindles in and near Charlotte in 1880, 25,000; the price of land per acre, $8.

"Spindles in and near Charlotte in 1891, 150,000; the price of land per acre, $15.

"Spindles in and near Charlotte in 1899, 250,000; the price of land per acre $25.

There is food for a whole lot of thought in these figures. North Carolina, while in these late days she gallantly leads her sister states in the great industry of cotton manufacturing, has abundant room and need for many more whirring looms and spindles. This one item of the remarkable enhancement of land-value in the whereabouts of the Mecklenburg mills, is a mighty argument in itself why we should build more mills all over the state. Every cotton industry started in the south serves as a rope to help us pull further south the great lever with which Massachusetts and her New England sisters have built their great cities and attained their industrial prominence, and when that day shall have dawned that the Old North State turns her entire crop of the great cereal into the manufactured product and ships the latter north, instead of vice versa, as has been the case in the past, then will we be on the true road to a permanent and safe prosperity.

There seems to be a general sympathy with the Boers in their admirable defiance of the stupendous power of Great Britain. Gen. Buller has mapped out a stern and inexorable plan of campaign through the Transvaal, and wherever his legions pass there will most probably be left a trail of olood and fire. He is a commandant, if our information is correct, of the cast of the Duke of Alva, or General Weyler, and if the Boers think he will have any "compunctious visitings of nature" when they call for quarter, they will doubtless be doomed to a fearful disappointment. The song-singing and pious Dutchmen will make a heroic stand for their loved liberties, but they will fall. And the two little republics of Southern Africa will crumble and sink like sand heaps in the great waters of the empire of John Bull.

THE KENTUCKY CAMPAIGN.

Bryan Speaks at Benton—Goebel Defends Election Law.

Benton, Ky., Oct. 16—Mr. Bryan was cordially greeted at Benton by a large crowd at noon. He was introduced as the "Great Democrat of the day," and took occasion to say in reply that all Democrats were great who lived up to their responsibilities. The defeat of 1896 merely made the party determined to win.

The party, though some of the leaders went astray, was right. The defeat of three years ago simply made the united party of today. The people have not changed. They believe the Democratic party is right and will see that the defeat of 1896 is reversed.

Mr. Goebel for the first time today undertook a defense of the election law known as the Goebel law. He claimed the law became a necessity to prevent the Republicans of the state from stealing the state elections, and charged the railroads and other state interests with being combined to defeat the Democratic state ticket in order to secure the repeal of the law. "For this reason," said Mr. Goebel, "we want a Democratic governor who will want a repeal of the law. For this reason we want you to send true Democrats to the Legislature. I say Democrats, because we do not want Palmer and Buckner Democrats or Brown Democrats. I mean Democrats who will see that it is not necessary for Democrats to steal an election. Kentucky is Democratic. It is the Republicans who steal elections in this state. We want to prevent giving the state to McKinley as in 1896, even if W. J. Bryan has a majority of 100,000.

ALLISON FRANCIS PAGE.

Death of the Moore County Lumber King.

Raleigh, Oct. 16—Allison Francis Page, "the Moore county lumber king," died today, after being unconscious for about two weeks.

Mr Page was born in Wake county, N. C., in August, 1824, and was therefore in his 76th year. He was first engaged in the lumber business on a large scale in the early seventies, and in 1887 projected the Aberdeen & West End Railroad, now the Aberdeen & Asheboro Railroad.

For a long time it was the best paying piece of railroad property in the United States. Some years ago he withdrew from it, and it has since been operated and chiefly owned by his sons. He was one of the founders of the Commercial and Farmers' Bank of Raleigh, and built the Academy of Music and the Park hotel, two of the largest and most costly structures in this city. He had many friends and no enemies, and his death will be widely deplored. One of his last acts was to give $5,000 to the Methodist Orphanage, which is being erected in Raleigh. Mr. Page leaves eight children.

The Boer's National Song.

The Boer national song, says the London News, is translated and published in its musical setting by Mr. Farley Newman in the number of Success for September 30, of which a copy has already been sent to us. The English translation of the first verse contains a description of the country which the Uitlanders decline to indorse in its entirety:

Right nobly gave Voortrekkers have
Their blood, their lives, their all,
For Freedom's right, in death's despite,
They fought at Duty's call.
Ho, Burghers! High our banners waveth,
The standard of the free,
No foreign yoke our land enslaveth,
Here reigneth liberty!
'Tis Heaven's command, here we should stand
And aye defend the Volk and land.

12,000 Japanese Dead.

Chicago, Oct. 16—A special to the Record from Tacoma, Wash., says: "A terrible epidemic of dysentery is appearing in Japan, with fatal results. Official reports show that out of 50,000 persons attacked up in September 14, nearly 12,000 have died The authorities estimate that 100,000 cases will be recorded by the end of October.

Bishop Fitzgerald Very Weak.

A PRINTER KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Ed Straughan's Head Cut Off by a Seaboard Shifter.

Last night about 9:45 o'clock at Johnson street station in Raleigh, a Seaboard Air Line shifting train killed a young white man named Ed. Straughan

The cars passed over him cutting his head entirely off, almost as smoothly as if it had been severed by a knife. His neck was exactly on the rail, the head inside the track and his feet outside. When he was picked up his hat was about three feet from the trunkless head.

Exactly how the accident occurred, if indeed it was an accident, is not known. Not even Engineer Card, who was on the engine at the time, can say whether he ran over the body as the engine went down the track or as it came back. Nor is it known whether Straughan purposely lay down and so carefully placed his body in order to be killed, or whether he was trying to get on the cars attached to the shifter to steal a ride.

The last theory, however, seems to be the true one. It is known that Straughan was drinking. He has for many years been addicted to the excessive use of intoxicants and several times before this he has come very near being killed. Sunday he offered Policeman Haynes a drink and told him he expected to "hobo" away from here on the train Monday (yesterday). And about twenty minutes before he was found dead on the track Straughan was seen by Watchman Morris staggering among the cars standing on the siding. Fireman Frank Cole, who was on the shifter, says he saw a man resembling the dead man in size running along beside a car, holding on to it, as the shifter went down the track towards the Raleigh Cotton Mills. A few minutes later as the train backed up the track he looked out and saw the man lying on the ground. He called attention to it and the engine was stopped immediately.

The body was found in the position described above. In the man's pocket was found a bottle with about a gill of whiskey in it. Otherwise than the complete cutting off of the head there was no cuts or bruises on it.—News and Observer.

GILBERT HARDWARE STOCK.

Restraining Order Issued by Judge Ewart—Store Closed.

The hardware store of W. H. Gilbert, on Trade street, was closed this morning by a restraining order issued on Saturday by Judge Ewart, of the circuit court.

It will be remembered that the stock of goods was sold by Mr. Gilbert last week to Wall & Huske for $8,000. It is said that Mr. Gilbert's indebtedness will amount to no less than $12,000.

The restraining order was secured by Mr. A. A. Eller, who went to Hendersonville and had a conference with Judge Ewart. The injunction proceedings will come up before the judge at Statesville next Monday or Tuesday. The creditors claim the stock is worth $15,000 or more and will endeavor to make Mr. Gilbert a bankrupt and secure possession of the hardware stock.—Winston Sentinel.

Ground Under His Engine.

Norfolk, Oct. 16—William H. Crowder, engineer of an eastbound freight train, on the Norfolk & Western Railroad, met with a terrible accident at Petersburg, which resulted in his death at 8:30 last night. Mr. Crowder, who is a highly respected citizen of Norfolk, was under his engine packing a box preparatory to bringing to Norfolk a train, which was being made up for him by the shifting engine. This engine struck his train, shoving the engine and tender over him, breaking both legs and a thigh and otherwise injuring him. He lingered two hours.

A coroner's inquest found that he was not afforded proper protection by the yard employees while under his engine.

Newell Will Sign the Protocol.

The Hague, Oct. 16—Stanford Newell, United States minister to the Netherlands, will sign the protocol embodying the agreements reached by the representatives of the powers participating in the recent peace conference.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it.—The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Tex. It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and seliable.

Sympathy may help a wounded heart but it won't heal a wounded limb.

That fact is so obvious that you wonder why any one can offer "sympathy" as the chief feature of treatment for the delicate diseases of women. Yet women are invited to "write to a woman who can sympathize with woman," and the theme of their correspondence is to be the delicate, difficult and dangerous diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength. It is true that such offers are combined with an offer of "medical advice." But medical advice can only be given by a competent physician, and no mention is made in such offers of a physician's or doctor's advice. It is not offered because it cannot be given. The offer is not being made by a qualified physician.

The offer of free consultation by letter, made to ailing women by Doctor R. V. Pierce, has behind it a physician's ability. Dr. Pierce is consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Associated with Dr. Pierce is a staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist. In a practice of over thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff have treated successfully more than half a million women, who have been cured of debilitating drains, inflammations, ulcerations and female troubles. The age, experience and skill of Dr. Pierce give him a supreme advantage in his chosen field of diseases of women.

You can write to Dr. Pierce without fear and without fee. Every letter is read privately and answered confidentially, the answer being sent in a plain envelope, without any printing upon it.

AN ASSAULT NEAR WINSTON.

Three Young Men Under Arrest Charged With a Terrible Crime.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 16—Jarvie Saunders, Jack Leeard Sam Hutchins, three young men of Salem, were arrested this morning on the charge of making a criminal assault last night upon Minnie Sprinkle, aged about 16 years.

The girl is from Yadkin county, but has been cooking here for some time. She claims that Saunders asked her to go out driving with him last evening. She accepted and they went west of Winston. About one mile from the city, Hutchins got in the buggy, and about four miles further Lee came up.

After the assault, the girl says, she got away and walked every step home. It is said the girl's dress was torn nearly off her. The case was heard before a magistrate in Salem today and the defendants were bound over to the superior court in bonds of $250 each.

The North Carolina conference closed at 1:30 o'clock today. There were very few changes in the appointments.

Shafter Reaches Age Limit.

Washington, Oct. 15—Official announcement was made today of the retirement of Brigadier-General Shafter from the regular army by reason of reaching the service limit of age prescribed by congress. He will be continued in command of the department of California and Columbia until further orders.

The little fellow was at the state fair last fall, and created a good deal of attention by his smallness of size. The little fellow is exceptionally bright and talks with rare good sense, answering questions asked him in a manner that would do credit to much older heads.—Durham Sun.

Brooklyn Leaves for Manila

Fort Monroe, Va., Oct. 16—The cruiser Brooklyn left Hampton Roads at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon, bound for Manila through the Suez canal.

The battleships Massachusetts and Indiana and the cruiser New York sailed for New York this morning. The Texas returned to Fort Monroe this morning and later proceeded to Lambert's Point where she is now taking on coal.

REV. S. A. DONAHOE

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Point Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

"This thing," remarked Guzzler confidentially to the bartender, "about whiskey making a man drunk is all in your eye."

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Hoax—"Dedbroke tells me that he staked many a modest little sum on the cards last night." Joax—"Yes, his ante was frequently 'shy.'"

FOUGHT IN COURT.

Floyd and Jack Allen, Brothers, Shoot Each Other Near Mt Airy.

Mt. Airy, N. C., Oct. 16—Late yesterday evening, ten miles north of here, in Carroll county, Virginia, near Fancy Cap, Jack and Floyd Allen, brothers, became involved in a difficulty at a magistrate's court, the latter shooting his brother in the forehead while the former received three shots from his brother Jack—one in the breast, one in the arm and one in the leg.

Both used 38-calibre Smith and Wesson revolvers at close range, and strange to say both are still living this afternoon. Both men are leading citizens of their community, and the trouble probably grew out of division of property of more than a year ago, bad blood having existed ever since between them.—Special to the News and Observer.

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for sick and nervous headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Cinn.

Ely's School

Book-keeping, Business and Ornamental Penmanship and Shorthand.

For Both Sexes.

READ CAREFULLY.

PROF. V. THEO. ELY,

(12 Years Experience in Teaching)

Graduate from Rochester Business University, Rochester, N. Y., will open up a select school in Both Double and Single Entry Book-keeping, Shorthand and Muscular Movement Business Writing, at the Brockmann School of Music Hall, beginning from 9 till 11 a. m., also a separate night school from 7:00 till 9:00 for those who cannot attend in day time. No extra tuition for combining both periods.

Monday, November 13, 1899,

Tuition in both writing and book-keeping combined, full course, $10.00; writing alone, strictly slant, $3.00. Payable at the expiration of the term.

Success is guaranteed to all who attend regularly and apply themselves, or no charge will be made for tuition.

Term will continue until completed, which requires from six to eight weeks.

If you ever expect to learn book-keeping or to write a good hand, now is your time.

No tuition is paid till the term closes, and the term does not close till all have finished the book-keeping course, and each student is his own judge as to when he knows it.

This fact should be taken as sufficient guarantee of safety and success. Let the pupils attend regularly and we will be responsible for the rest. No LESSONS TO STUDY AT HOME.

Stationery for full book-keeping course, including writing material, etc., not over 80 cents. Writing material, etc., furnished at the hall.

Hall will be kept warm and comfortable.

Why You Should Attend This School:

Because for $10.00 you get the same identical course in book-keeping and penmanship that you would get at any commercial college at from $150 to $250. Because you complete the course before you pay tuition. Because every subject is taught from the blackboard without the use of a text book. Because every other branch except book-keeping and writing, is excluded, making it possible to complete the course in from six to eight weeks.

Because we, the undersigned pupils, have just finished Prof. Ely's course in book-keeping and writing at Nicholson's Hall, Union, S. C., and freely testify to the fact that truly he offers a chance of a lifetime to learn these important branches of business education:

H. E. Mabry, W. C. Hames, Webster Gregory, W. H. West, W. C. Smith, J. O. Babb, F. C. Posey, J. T. Hawkins, James L. Hawkins, George Witherspoon, T. J. Betenbaugh (county supervisor), J. F. Powell, J. G. Farr.

UNION, S. C.

We take pleasure in saying that PROF. V. THEO. ELY has commended himself to us as a first-class gentleman in every sense of the word and worthy of anyone's confidence, both socially and professionally:

J. H. Hamilton, M. D.; F. B. Culp, Chief Police; J. G. Going, M. D.; L. S. Townsend, Merchant; Geo. Munro, Cashier Merchants' and Planters' Bank; J. G. Farr, County Auditor; H. G. Bailey, Merchant; F. M. Whitlock, Chairman County Board of Control; The Williamson Co., Jewelry; J. L. Hicks, Superintendent Union Cotton Mills.

Puts Calls

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

S. L. Aldermian will be out of town until Saturday. See ad.

Services at First Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The New York Bargain House calls your attention to their line of clothing in today's ad.

Pickled pigs feet, turnip seed and bananas. See change of Smith & Murchison's ad this page.

Will H. Matthews & Co. are people who have an eye to doing the right thing at the right time. See new ad.

At 7:45 tonight there will be a full rehearsal at West Market street church of the choruses for the sacred concert.

Thacker & Brockmann have a new ad in the Telegram today on front page, to which we take pleasure in directing attention.

Harry Poezolt, the tailor moved today into his new quarters next to E. M. Caldcleugh & Bros. His place is one of the neatest in town.

The eighteen-months old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Cardeza, of Brown Summit, died last night, and will be buried in Green Hill, this city, tomorrow.

A note from Mrs. R. L. Goodman says she has moved to 45 West Baker street, Atlanta, where she will run a nice boarding house during the Atlanta fair.

In spite of the clouds and rain today large crowds have thronged every train going to Raleigh. Should tomorrow and Thursday be fair days (and why not as it is fair week) the crowds will be immense.

On tomorrow and Thursday the Southern Railway will operate a special fair train to Raleigh, leaving this city at seven o'clock, and returning leave Raleigh about five, arriving in Greensboro about eight p. m.

Sam Browne says the man who hoped to be able to eat Christmas dinner in the new Benbow is behind time that a lot of the workmen ate their dinner there yesterday. Let it go at that, as the Danville Bee would say.

The Centerville band passed through last night going to Raleigh to play during the fair. While here they visited the Gate City band boys in their practice hall, but did not treat them to an exhibition of their skill as musicians.

The man who said the new sign of the Southern Loan and Trust Co. was a bum job may be a judge of Korn Likker, but when it comes to judging sign work, he is wall-eyed, cross-eyed, badly astigmatized and needs a pair of glasses.

For the accommodation of Greensboro people who will want to attend the big day of races at the Winston Horse Show next week, the Southern Railway will attach a passenger coach to the freight train which leaves Winston at 8.30 p. m. on the 26th.

Today the loose telephone wires on North Elm street were taken down, and all the 'phones in that part of town are now working through the cable. Mr. McAdoo and his force under Mr. Horton, have had a stupendous job, and will soon have the best equipped telephone system in the state.

PROSPEROUS GREENSBORO.

The City of Flowers Rapidly Coming to the Front.

Mr. C. A. Matthews, in a lengthy article in the Charlotte News on the forging to the front of a number of North Carolina towns, has the following to say of Greensboro:

"At Greensboro the writer was specially struck with the many improvements that have been made within the past few months. To the traveler's eye, the handsome new depot is the most noticeable. It is a modern structure, well fitted and furnished, splendidly located and of commanding appearance. It is just such a station as Charlotte has long needed and just such a one as the Southern, no doubt, will soon make our town a present of. It was planned by Architect Milburn and is indeed a credit to the genius of this well known Charlotte architect.

"Greensboro is rapidly coming to the front. Her diversified industries are rapidly becoming more so. Her business men are alive to the situation and, before many years, Charlotte will have a most formidable competitor in the City of Flowers."

Suits.

Your fall suit can be selected from the lines of the best manufacturers in the country at 60 cents on the dollar. The Fishblate-Katz Co. Inc., will retire January 1, 1900, and the entire stock without discrimination will be sold at 60 cents on the $1.00. Call early. Fishblate-Katz Co., Opposite McAdoo.

Threatened Her Life.

W. T. Adams, ex-president of the farmers' alliance and former representative from Granville county, has been taken to Oxford and put in jail for threatening the life of his wife; also for threatening to burn the property and shooting at the house of Dr. Cozart, to which his wife had fled for protection.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

We have just opened a fresh shipment of girls' spring heeled shoes, button and laced, with patent leather and kid tips, price $1.25 and $1.50. They are excellent shoes, fit well, look nice and wear well. All sizes from 11½ to two. Thacker & Brockmann.

THE ABDUCTION CASE.

Tried Before 'Squire Pritchett Last Night.

The case mentioned yesterday in which a colored woman from Southern Pines came to this city armed with deputy sheriff and papers issued by a justice of the peace was not disposed of as "slick" as was stated.

The negro John Hadley boarded the Sanford train and found the woman, the child and the officer at Pleasant Gardon, waiting to board the train. Hadley surprised the party by jumping off as the the train stopped and grabbed the child, and while parleying over it the train left. Then there was nothing left but to have a fight or return to Greensboro. The latter course was adopted, and there being a warrant out for the woman the case was heard in Justice Pritchett's court last night.

On the trial the following facts, as stated by Hadley, developed: About six years ago Hadley's brother, who was a barber, separated from his wife in Moore county and taking the child went to Rocky Mount, where a year and a half ago he died. His wife had not tried to obtain the child and was not present during her husband's sickness. The dying man gave the child to his brother, John Hadley, to raise. He left about $400 in property and directed that it go to the maintenance of the child. The child was brought here by John, and he has been feeding, clothing and sending it to school, and only recently its mother has tried to claim it.

That is Hadley's story. He was represented by Col. Staples, who saw that the woman on account of being nearest of kin, could not be held for abduction, and asked that the deputy, whose papers he claimed were not in due form and were therefore worthless, be included in the warrant. This the justice refused to do and the case was dismissed at Hadley's cost, the 'squire adjudging the prosecution to be frivolous and malicious. The cost was paid, and the woman left for Moore county this morning, taking the child with her.

SEABOARD TO GREENSBORO.

That Is the Report Now—Eventual Extension to Winston.

There is a rumor to the effect that the Seaboard Air Line contemplates extending a line to Greensboro, N. C., within the next year, says the Richmond Dispatch. The rumor is not confirmed by the chief officials of the road in this city.

However, the Greensboro Industrial and Immigration Association, composed of the leading business men of the place, is working to have the Seaboard extend a line here. The president of the association is J. W. Fry, former general manager of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad. He is now president of a loan and trust company in Greensboro. He has written the officials of the Seaboard with a view to arranging a conference looking to the building of a line to Greensboro. A meeting has not yet been arranged.

It is proposed to have the Seaboard extend its line from Pittsboro to Haw River, and thence to Greensboro. An eventual extension to Winston might be constructed.

Overcoats.

Call at the Fishblate-Katz Co. (Inc) and buy your fall overcoat. Price 60 cents on the dollar. Quality there—quantity limited.

Among the leading Life Insurance companies showing marked increases this year, the Provident Savings is in the front rank. It is making large gains over last year, its new business during the past three months being over one hundred per cent in excess of the same period last year.—Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21, 1899.
